BACKGROUND

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974

This Act and its Exemptions Order provide that an applicant for a post of this kind may not withhold information about any conviction, which might otherwise be considered 'spent'. Such a conviction would not necessarily lead to a ban on employment, and the stating of any conviction would be treated in confidence and only considered in relation to this post. Subsequent discovery of an undisclosed conviction may lead to the dismissal of an employee.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence?

YES / NO

Delete as necessary.

If the answer is 'Yes', please give details on a separate sheet of paper.
